Friday, April 27. 1705.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated April 10.

Moscow, Feb. 22.

ON New-Year's-Day, last, the Czar caus'd a Fire Work which he had order'd to be made in the great Square of this City, to be fir'd, by Way of Rejoycing for the taking of Nerva and other Advantages obtain'd last Campaign over the Swedes in Livonia and Ingermerland. The Czar saw this Fire Work play'd off from a Stage which he had caus'd to be built near it, being accompanied by the principal Bojars of his Court, and the foreign Ministers, among which was an Ambassador from the Ottoman Porte, who lately arriv'd here, being sent to treat of a Prolongation of the Truce. 146 Colours and Standards, and 84 Cannon, that were taken from the Swedes, were expos'd on this Occasion; and have since been put into the Arsenal. Major General Horn, who commanded in Nerva, and 46 other Swedish Officers that were made Prisoners with him, among whom are 4 Colonels, are treated very handsomely here, and have the Liberty of walking whither they please with 2 Soldiers each to guard them. The Czar has nominated the Bojar Alexander Daniel Menskoff, to treat with the Commissioners the King of Sweden shall appoint for the Exchange of Prisoners on each Side; and to settle a Cartel. The naval Preparations are carried on with Vigour, as are also those for the Service by Land, and the new Levies are sent towards the Frontier, the Czar intending to begin the Operations of the Campaign early, and to put himself at the Head of the Army that is to act in Livonia. Mr. Whitworth, the Envoy of England, who very lately arriv'd here, proposes to attend the Czar into the Field.

From Carelscoorn in the Province of Schonen, March 26. We have receiv'd Letters from General Meydel touching the Advantage he lately obtain'd over the Enemy, in which he writes, that after having burnt several Muscovite Vessels laden with Forrage, and put to the Sword 200 Men that were on the Island of Rattezaki or Petersbourg, he detach'd a famous Party Leader nam'd Seewikas, with a strong Detachment, to destroy the Ships that were laid up for the Winter at Notebourg; who burnt 11 of them, among which were some Frigates of from 20 to 30 Guns, without the Loss of 1 Man; and after that Exploit rejoyn'd the said General, who gratified him, and the Officers and Soldiers that were with him, with a certain Sum of Money. The Squadron of Ships of War and Frigates that are fitting out in this Port, is ready to put to Sea, and under their Convoy the Transport Vessels on board which are to be embark'd the Troops appointed to serve in Poland and Livonia, which arrive one Regiment after another daily in our Neighbourhood, and are to be embark'd by the last of this Month; to the Number of 14000 Men.

Vienna, April 11. The 9th Instant being Maundy Thursday, their Imperial and Roman Majesties, as also the Arch-Dutcheffes, with the principal Lords and Ladies of the Court, went and received the Sacrament in the great Church of the Augustines, and being return'd to the Pallace, the Emperor, and King of the Romans, perform'd the Annual Ceremony of washing the Feet of 12 poor old Men, whose Ages together made 927 Years; after which, they serv'd them at Dinner, and gave to each a Purse of Money. The Empress, the Queen of the Romans, and the Arch-Dutcheffes, did the like to 12 poor Women, whose several Ages made in all 906 Years.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated April 10.

Brussels, April 10. His Electoral Highness of Bavaria being indispos'd, could not be at Divine Service in his Chappel on Maundy-Thursday; and therefore order'd his great Chamberlain to be present at it for him: After Mass was solemnly celebrated, and the usual Procession made, he perform'd the Function in the Name of his Electoral Highness of washing the Feet of 12 poor old Men, cloath'd in new Habits, whose Ages together made up 955 Years; he also serv'd them at Table, and distributed a Purse of Money to each of them. This Court is gone into Mourning, for the Death of the most serene Duke Maximilian of Bavaria, his Electoral Highness's Uncle.

In Yesterday's Courant we incerted a Piece of a remarkable Sermon preach'd before the King of France in his Chappel at Versailles, on the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin, by Father Gaillard a Jesuite: We cannot think it amiss to shew that his most Christian Majesty was very well pleas'd with the Incense offer'd him by that Father, by incerting the following Paragraph from the last Paris Gazette.

Certificate concerning Stoughton's Cordial Elixir, which pray read over.

This is to Certify, That having used Mr. Stoughton's Cordial Elixir, found always great Benefit and Success from it, and affirm, that when my Ship lay at Jamaica, a while ago, 6 or 7 of my Men fell ill with a great stoppage at the Stomach, high Fever immediately Light Headed, together with a Vomiting and Loosness, and most died in 24 Hours; presently after 6 or 7 more fell ill in the same manner, and I ply'd them with the said Elixir, and with the Blessing of God, every one were speedily Cured, and all the Men acknowledge they owe their Lives to that Medicine, and I am of Opinion it is of great use to be taken to Sea; it was in mighty Esteem at Jamaica when I came away, and was sold for 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. This is Verbatim. Sign'd Matthew Beesly, Captain of the Bonadventure, August 17. 1703. The said Captain is a Man of Worth and Reputation (his Dwelling at Poplar) and when on Shore, almost every day at the Mairmaid Tavern in Cornhill, or Cock in Birch Lane, from whom any Gentleman may have satisfaction. When he came Home from Barbadoes last, he declares it was in as great Esteem there, and could have sold (would he have spared it) at any reasonable Price. I do affirm it to be so at New England, and other parts of the West-Indies, and believe it the best one Medicine in the World to carry to Sea; for those Scorbutick Fevers, Fluxes, Gripes, &c. proceed from Infectious Air, Weakness of Stomach, and Bowels, against which this is a most noble Remedy, to be taken in a dram of Brandy, Punch or Rum, as a Preservative, or Curative; it will keep good many Years, and alters not in any Climate, when once try'd, few will venture to Sea without it. The said Captain hath just now taken a quantity with him to Sea again, and several others very lately that go with this Fleet. I have several more Certificates by me of what great things it has done, too long to insert here, but any Body may see them. It is 1 s. a Bottle, Wholesale cheaper. What is sold by the Name of Garraway's near the Exchange is not the right, but a Counterfeit; and all others that has not my Name in a Cypher, and in words at length, on the Seal of every Bottle and Bill with it. Prepared only by R. Stoughton, Apothecary at the Unicorn in Southwark, and made publick 14 Years.

A fam'd Elixir for the Wind, which expels it to Admiration, whether in the Stomach or Bowels, all fower or windy Belches or Hiccups from Indigestions, &c. it removes upon the Spot; and cures Pains in the Stomach, Gripings in the Guts, Stitches in the Sides, and the Wind-Cholick to a Miracle; being no pretended, but real effectual Medicine, fit for the Use of Old or Young. To be had only at Mr. Spooner's, now removed from Goodman's Fields to the Golden Key, a little way within Black Fryars near Ludgate. Price 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
